

WILL YOU WALK WITH WARRIORS?

THE JOINING FORCES CAMPAIGN INVITE OUR COUNTRY TO THE NEXT GREAT BRITISH CHALLENGE FOR OUR VETERANS AND OUR YOUTH.

TELLING THE STORIES WHICH SPEAK OF OUR TIMES.

#BEAPARTOFSOMETHING

Because we believe, there is no greater way of honouring the brave, speaking for the mistreated and remembering the forgotten, than telling their story, the Joining Forces Campaign, a group of veterans and filmmakers who unite to tell the stories which speak of our times, are once more taking to the path like warriors.

This time, we are asking our country to walk beside us.

It is in a soldier's nature to protect the vulnerable, this remains even when having to leave service.

It is in a filmmaker's nature to hold a mirror up to society, mistreatment, and injustice, this remains, even with the many obstacles which block our path.

Last year, to raise money for those suffering in the Ukraine, we told the story of our veterans, a story drawn together from their courage by sharing with us their most traumatic and painful memories of war.

Thin, Brittle, Mile follows the ubiquitous story of a soldier, going through his greatest battles on his return home.

Through the Great British Challenge, a series of social events and competitions, we raised funds to create an AudioMovie of Thin, Brittle, Mile, narrated and acted by Simon Callow and other great talents.

Because we believe nothing is more important than the need to have a voice. A voice which is heard, respected and understood, the Joining Forces Campaign are starting another Great British Challenge and taking to the path again. This time to tell someone else's story . . .

Age of Descent is a poignant and powerful look at the knife crime epidemic as seen through the eyes of five teenagers and their teacher at an average suburban school.

The funds we raise through our next challenge will not only tell the story of our youth but initiate an ongoing way of providing information, resource and outlets to support, champion and protect them.

If you share our beliefs and would like to walk with our warriors, to raise funds for Age of Descent, and make sure our veterans' own story, Thin, Brittle, Mile finds a greater audience
